ELIGIBILITY

Eligibility for The Friedman Residence is based on federal guidelines for Low-Income Housing Tax Credits. An applicant's annual income from all sources (employment, benefits, asset interest) must be more than $17,000 and less than $38,100. The annual income of a household of two should be at least $17,000 and cannot exceed $43,500.

Please note:

- Applicants receiving specific rental subsidies may also be eligible.
- Full-time students are NOT eligible for residency.
- Assets must be evaluated in determining eligibility. (Assets do not include personal property, such as: furniture, automobiles, and clothing.)
- No pets are allowed.

OCCUPANCY

The Friedman Residence is a building for adults. Households of two will be considered for a one-bedroom unit only if both members are either a person with HIV/AIDS or a senior citizen. The Friedman Residence is not able to accommodate households greater than two. Tenants who live in one-bedroom apartments are responsible for paying a monthly rent and electric charges.

SHARED HOUSING

Apartments at The Friedman Residence are comprised of two- and three-bedroom units. There are also a limited number of one-bedroom units; however, priority for these units is given only to persons with specialized medical needs. In the shared apartments, each resident has a private bedroom and shares a living room and kitchen with one or two other people. Some bedrooms feature private baths, while others feature shared baths with one other person. Tenants living in shared apartments must pay a monthly rent charge. Electricity costs are not charged for tenants who live in these (shared) units.

CURRENT RENT

- Shared Units (multi-bedroom units) One-Year Lease: $645.00/mo.
- Single Units (one-bedroom units) One-Year Lease: $665.00/mo.+ electric

*Please note: There are fewer one-bedroom units than shared-units, therefore the frequency of one-bedroom vacancies is significantly less than those for shared-units. These units are also subject to the aforementioned prioritization.
