ANNUAL REPORT 2019

Mission

The Actors Fund fosters stability and resiliency, and provides a safety net for performing arts and entertainment professionals over their lifespan.

Vision

We envision a world in which individuals contributing to our country's cultural vibrancy are supported, valued and economically secure.

Dear Friends,

October 13, 2020

Thanks to your support, The Actors Fund continues to be here for everyone in performing arts and entertainment throughout their lives and careers, fostering stability and resiliency, and providing an essential safety net in these unprecedented times.

In this Annual Report, we look back at the assistance provided in 2019. We shine a light on our social services (p. 6), The Career Center (p. 8), health care and insurance counseling (p. 10), housing (p. 12), senior care (p. 14), financial wellness (p. 16) and young performers (p. 18). Among the ways we help is in the provision of emergency financial assistance and, in 2019, The Fund provided $2,078,707 for crucial needs. So far in 2020, with tremendous help from our many partners and supporters, The Actors Fund has provided more than $16.6 million to over 13,700. And, we know the needs of the entertainment community will only increase in the coming months.

The COVID-19 pandemic has inflicted disproportionate economic damage on the performing arts and entertainment community, and the suffering is felt by those above and below the line, on and off stage and screen. After prioritizing short-term supports and ensuring the stability of our ongoing programs in a swift transition to online and phone support, The Fund is planning for near and long-term needs as this crisis evolves.

Our recently launched Every Artist Insured campaign will enhance our free and confidential health insurance counseling and enrollment support services (p. 10). In the coming months, thousands of professionals who remain without work because of the COVID-19 pandemic will become ineligible for their union insurance. In order to maintain coverage without interruption, individuals and families will need education and assistance in selecting and securing affordable health insurance plans through the state health insurance exchanges starting immediately. Thanks to leading support from Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS, The Fund has hired and trained additional health insurance counselors at our Artists Health Insurance Resource Center.

In addition, The Friedman Health Center for the Performing Arts (p. 10) in New York City, now in its fourth year, continues to offer an excellent team of general practitioners, as well as specialists in gynecology, dermatology, physical therapy and podiatry to keep our community healthy.

Members of our community are continually examining their career options with a long view, and even more so in today's economy. In addition to its regular workshops on resume writing and job search basics, The Career Center (p. 8) is offering counseling, webinars and forums specific to our times and to an even wider national online audience, on topics such as:

- How to Job Search During a Pandemic;
- Creativity Doesn't Age: Speaker Series for the 50+ Crowd; and
- Career Uncertainty in the Time of COVID-19.

The Actors Fund has also initiated or enhanced programs that address specific needs of marginalized groups. We have multiple groups to provide Black-identified, Indigenous and non-Black POC entertainment professionals a space to affirm experiences and discuss the impact of racial injustice, including:

- Healing with The Actors Fund Group for Black-Identified Entertainment Professionals;
- Healing with The Actors Fund Group for Non-Black POC Entertainment Professionals;
- Black Entertainment Professionals Town Hall; and
- Mind Body Spirit Group for Black Women in Entertainment.

For those who've dedicated a major portion of their lives to performing arts and entertainment, The Actors Fund Home (p. 15) continues to offer the very best in short-stay rehabilitation, skilled nursing, assisted living and memory care. With a perfect survey from the New Jersey State Department of Health and a Five Star rating from the Federal Government's Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, The Home provides excellent health care and supportive services for both short-term rehabilitation and long-term residence.

Thanks to the collaborative spirit and immense contributions of a dedicated Board, staff and volunteers, our programs are evolving to respond to the needs of our community. Above all, we're grateful to the generosity of Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS, whose unwavering support is assuring help is there in these uncertain times.

Our donors play a major role in a grand tradition of caring for our entertainment and performing arts community. There are no easy solutions to the challenges now facing so many of the creative workers. But, together, our commitment to them is steadfast.

We couldn't do this work without you.

Thank you.

THE ACTORS FUND VALUES STATEMENT

We recognize the contributions of each individual, and promote trust and mutual respect.

We collaborate and share information, skills and knowledge with each other and our community.

We encourage and celebrate curiosity, creativity and innovation.

We embrace diversity and seek equity, inclusion and dignity for all.

We hold ourselves and each other accountable for the integrity of our services, to being good stewards and maintaining the trust of our clients and supporters.

OUR SERVICES & PROGRAMS

We offer a broad spectrum of programs to support the unique, essential needs of all who work in entertainment and the performing arts.

Whether on stage or on camera, behind the scenes or below the line, we assist everyone working in theater, film, television, radio, music, dance, opera and circus. Administered through our offices in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles, these programs help people across the country solve problems and make positive changes in their lives.

SOCIAL SERVICES & EMERGENCY FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Since 1882, The Actors Fund has been an essential resource for professionals working in performing arts and entertainment.

Our free and confidential social service programs address a wide array of challenges faced by people who work in the arts.

With respect, compassion and understanding, our professional social workers offer counseling and support groups, education, emergency financial assistance and practical help around a broad spectrum of issues including HIV/AIDS, women's health, disability support, senior services, and addiction and recovery.

Our professional social workers work with clients one-on-one and through an array of groups and seminars that help to foster stability and resiliency over the entire lifespan of our community.

2019 IMPACTS

Here for Our Entertainment Community— COVID-19 Emergency Relief

Since June 8, 1882, The Actors Fund has been here to support everyone in entertainment.

In 2019, The Fund continued our work of providing services that provide stability and resiliency, in addition to the safety net of services so central to our mission. In this time of uncertainty around COVID-19, we're still here for our community.

To assist everyone who works in performing arts and entertainment across the country, we're collaborating with our community to help navigate these challenging times.

With shutdowns on Broadway and in film and television, theater, concerts, dance, music and many other areas of entertainment, our emergency financial assistance is helping our most vulnerable and those in financial crisis with assistance for basic living expenses such as essential medications, to help prevent evictions, and to pay for food or utilities.

To apply for emergency financial assistance or for information on our programs and services, please visit actorsfund.org/GetHelp.

In Memory of

One of the best ways to honor a loved one's life or someone special to you is to make a gift to The Actors Fund in their memory. Those being honored are in bold below, with donors noted below each honoree. To make your own "In Memory of" gift, contact Jay Haddad, Manager of Individual Giving, at 917.281.5928, email jhaddad@actorsfund.org or visit actorsfund.org/Tribute.
